

Benefiting the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at Nemours/Alfred I. duPont Hospital for Children

Nemours offers a team of medical experts that extends beyond neonatal care. Our NICU team works with world-renowned Nemours pediatric specialists to be sure newborns with complex problems get the best care.

Medical expertise is just part of the overall care babies get in the Nemours/Alfred I. duPont Hospital for Children NICU. We invest in equipment designed especially for the tiniest infants. Our NICU team knows how to make a newborn's stay as comforting as possible.

When we take care of newborns, we keep families involved every step of the way. The care team explains diagnoses and treatments, discusses all the options, and invites families to help create the best treatment plans for their babies.
